

Sandos Hotels and Xyaat cooperative society celebrates 5 years of continuous collaboration

February 2019, Playa del Carmen - Last Tuesday, February 26th, became the ideal time and place for the renewal of an agreement between the cooperative Xyaat and Sandos Hotels & Resorts.

This agreement allows the opportunity to the artisans, skilled craft workers, of Puerto Morelos and the communities near Felipe Carrillo Puerto to promote their talent and work inside the hotel, while the hotel promotes Mayan Culture to the guest.

The Xiaat cooperative, chaired by Marcos Cante, has been working and collaborating with Sandos Hotels for more than five years. Each Sandos Hotel collaborated with the Xiaat cooperative has renewed the agreement to help the communities towards a more prosperous future. All directors of Sandos Hotels in Mexico as well as Ismerai Martínez, director of the Sandos Foundation, met to sign and further the agreement with Xyaat Cooperative.

This year, besides the collaboration of the Artisans in the hotel, the transport, assistance for the future, and the promotion of life were also appointed.

On behalf of General Director of Social development Deyanira Martínez Estrada, Alberto Jimenez highlighted the appreciation they had for the enormous effort Sandos Hotel has put in to preserve the Mayan Culture and seek the development of these communities.
